Word Count Requirements

The report doesn't have to be written...it can be a blog, website, slideshow, podcast, recorded film. However, it must be separate from the product/goal. This means that if your goal was to create a website than your report cannot be the actual website (although you can include your report on the website if you want) but it should be a separate piece of work from the product/goal

Format	Length requirement
	(Excluding bibliography and other components. Only includes the report itself)
Written Report	1500-3500 words
Electronic Report (website, blog or slideshow)	1500-3500 words
Oral Report	13-15 minutes
(podcast, audio recording or visual film)

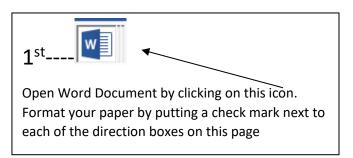

If your report uses a $\underline{\textbf{combination}}$ of spoken and written, then please adhere to the following IB requirements:

Investigating:

This section must address all the questions from the outline that was given to you on yellow paper during stage 3 in math classes. You should type up your answers into a narrative that answers all the questions, but you should not necessarily type up each question with the answer separately. Each section of your paper should be about 500 words long. You need to cite research in your paper. In the MLA format, you must cite your research in parenthetical citations. This allows you to "acknowledge your sources by keying brief parenthetical citations in your text to an alphabetical list of works that appears at the end of the paper" (Gibaldi 142). Notice that in this brief citation the period goes after the parenthesis, and the parenthesis are after the quote. The information in parenthesis should include the author's last name or a shortened title for unsigned works. If you used the key information (author's last name or the title of an unsigned work) in your text, do not repeat it in the parenthesis.

Planning:

Again, you must address all the questions from your outline/checklist. It is common to refer to your journals as evidence of your planning. For example, if you want to reference the first journal in your appendix, you would cite it like this (Appendix B).

Taking Action:

This section is mainly about how you achieved your goal. Be specific as to your strengths and weaknesses and how you overcame challenges. Make sure you are discussing your ATL skills and referring to journals.

Reflecting:

This section is for you to think about your own learning process. Make sure you address all the questions in the outline in about 500 words.

How to write a "Works Cited" (Example on the next page)

After the last paragraph in an MLA style essay, force the document to begin a new page for the Works Cited page. The Works Cited page will still have the one-inch margins all the way around and have the heading of last name and page number. This page will also be double-spaced throughout with no extra space between entries. See the next page for an example. You must have at least 4 sources.

HOW TO SET UP YOUR WORKS CITED PAGE IN MLA FORMAT

A Works Cited page should be set up in a very specific format.

- The Works Cited page should be alphabetized using the first letter of each entry.
- If you already have all of your sources listed on source cards or note cards, just remove the cards for any source that you do not plan to use in your paper.
- Arrange the remaining cards in alphabetical order by the first significant word on the bibliography or source card. (Disregard an, a, and the when they appear as the first word).
- The alphabetical list of your sources begins with a title centered one inch from the top of the page. After the title, double-space once and begin your list of entries following the forms given below.

- Each entry begins at the left margin, and any additional lines are indented five spaces or a standard tab key.
- The list should be double-spaced within each entry and double-spaced between each additional entry.

When a publication or database does not indicate the publisher, the place or date of publication, or the pagination, use the following symbols:

n.p. No place of publication given n.d. No date of publication given n.p. No publisher given n. pag. No pagination given (pages are not numbered)

Appendix A: Journal date

Your MYP project must have an Appendix.

Each page of your Appendix should be labeled, "Appendix A, B, C, etc" and should also have a clear title as to what that appendix is. Each artifact in your appendix (including your journals) should be referred to somewhere in your paper as it supports your process.

Appendix MUST include:

Your Appendix must include 10 journal entries (if your journals were uploaded to ManageBac, you can just print them from there and then refer to the journals as one artifact in your Appendix).

Appendix MIGHT also include (depending on your project):

- 1. The website URL and/or screen shots of the website you created
- 2. The brochure
- 3. Photographs
- 4. Surveys
- 5. Drawings/sketches
- 6. Video (uploaded to ManageBac is best but you can also upload to YouTube. This way your supervisor is able to view the video with ease. DVD's are acceptable but you are responsible for ensuring the format is viewable for your supervisor)
- 7. Anything that demonstrates how you used your skills to develop your goals
