

WOOSTER DAILY ANNOUNCEMENTS

April 10, 2018-April 20

Hey guys, can you guess what's happening all this week? RING RING RING! It's Spring Fling! Wooster leadership is hosting a carnival next Friday and all clubs are welcomed to set a booth up for $20. Pick up forms in G4 today after school. Forms are due no later than Wednesday April 18. All proceeds made go to the club and the best booth wins a prize!

April 16 to April 20

The Wooster Players are proud to present the Spring Theatre Production of Rumors! The show runs TH, F, SAT at 7pm and SUN at 2pm. Tickets are $9 for adults and $7 for WCSD Students and may be purchased in the theatre box office or online at woosterplayers.org. Don't miss out on this fabulous farcical comedy with some of your favorite Wooster Players: Ben Clarkson, Tayler Gerhard, Nicholas Scott, Parker Gibbons, Forrest Derr, Ann Snelgrove, Summer Mather, Madison Bible, Malia Pruyn and Jacinda Tuttle!

April 17 and April 18

The following students qualified for the Speech and Debate National Tournament:

1. Raksha Giri-World Schools Debate
2. Ann Snelgrove-Program Oral Interpretation
3. Nick Scott-Duo Interpretation
4. Madison Bible-Duo Interpretation
5. Max Johnson - Senate

We have 1 more pending result.

Elias Brezine is still in the running to qualify as an alternate.

Jesus Casillas and Daniel Enriquez are going to compete in the Big Question Debate tournament being held April 28th and the top finisher will also be invited.

Today only

SSO would like to acknowledge Aaron Martinez for being kind and inclusive to a fellow student. Aaron gave his jacket to another student he didn't know who was observed shivering during Senior Pictures. JV Softball Coach Baldwin observed this and wants to be sure his kindness was recognized.

4/19 TO 4/20

Dance club will be hosting "Just Dance" night in which students get to play the video game through XBOX KINECT on Friday April 27 from 3:30-5 in B16. Tickets will be sold for $4 starting on April 20th. Purchase them in room B16 during lunch or from any dance club member! Snacks and refreshments will be provided!